QA

Golovina Marina

I have always been keen on learning new knowledge from different spheres, it creates the unique set of skills and helps in finding substandard decisions. After a few months of learning at QA courses I understand that my passion is testing, because quality is the degree of excellence of everything. I am not afraid of challenges, which stimulate getting new experience and involve the maximum of my potential . I would be happy to become a part of your company, bring mutual benefits, stay up-to-date, improve my skills and become an expert in QA
